SPEAK REGGAETON

Spanish Slang for Beginners with Online Audio: Puerto Rican Expressions, Real-Life Dialogues, and Latin Music Culture

PRINTABLE READING COMPANION · LEVEL A1–A2

Twelve chapter activities, one listening checklist, and a practical spaced-review schedule. This companion supports the book; it does not reproduce the full dialogues.

NAME _____ DATE _____

Three-pass study routine

1 READ — Identify what Nora and Luis are trying to do and how the situation changes.

2 LISTEN — Play the matching CH01–CH12 track, follow the printed dialogue, and replay unclear turns.

3 RESPOND — Say one short sentence of your own. Check the register and region labels before using informal slang.

Companion website

https://jrevaliente.github.io/classics-in-easy-spanish/speak-reggaeton/

Public audio is hosted externally by Internet Archive. Playback, exact audio-text matching and final editorial release still require verification. The book remains usable without the online resource.

Chapter listening log

Use the checkboxes as a record of practice, not a test of proficiency.

CHAPTER	READ	LISTEN	SPEAK	REVIEW DATE
01 ¿Qué es la que hay?	☐	☐	☐	_____
02 Corillo and Pana	☐	☐	☐	_____
03 Janguear	☐	☐	☐	_____
04 Dale, Replies and Silence	☐	☐	☐	_____
05 Dembow, Beat and Flow	☐	☐	☐	_____
06 Perreo	☐	☐	☐	_____
07 Frontear	☐	☐	☐	_____
08 Romance and Double Meanings	☐	☐	☐	_____
09 Chavos and Cuartos	☐	☐	☐	_____
10 Parce and Guagua	☐	☐	☐	_____
11 Pa, Para and Connected Speech	☐	☐	☐	_____
12 The Final Listening Lab	☐	☐	☐	_____

Write one phrase you want to remember

CHAPTER 01 · ¿Qué es la que hay?

Before the First Rehearsal

Situation check: Where is the missing phone? What can Luis do to help?

Useful beginner phrase: ¿Necesitas ayuda?

Words to recognise or revisit: ¿Qué es la que hay?, pana, bocina

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 02 · Corillo and Pana

A Poster for Everyone

Situation check: Why could a stranger misunderstand the first poster? How do they fix it?

Useful beginner phrase: Puede venir todo el mundo.

Words to recognise or revisit: corillo, pana, entrada gratis

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 03 · Janguear

Twenty Tracks and One Coffee

Situation check: How is Nora’s idea of a get-together different from Luis’s first idea?

Useful beginner phrase: ¿A qué hora nos vemos?

Words to recognise or revisit: janguear, jangueo, tema

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 04 · Dale, Replies and Silence

The Unanswered Invitation

Situation check: What causes the noise in their recording? Why is Nora anxious about replies?

Useful beginner phrase: Dale, ponla otra vez.

Words to recognise or revisit: dale, pichear (recognition), grabación

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 05 · Dembow, Beat and Flow

Inside the Demo

Situation check: Which part of the music stays the same when Nora changes her delivery?

Useful beginner phrase: Baja un poco el volumen.

Words to recognise or revisit: dembow, beat, flow

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 06 · Perreo

Room to Dance

Situation check: What choices do they leave open for someone who prefers to listen?

Useful beginner phrase: Prefiero escuchar.

Words to recognise or revisit: perreo (recognition), bailar, espacio

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 07 · Frontear

Who Gets the Credit?

Situation check: What did Luis’s caption imply, and whose work did it overlook?

Useful beginner phrase: Tienes razón.

Words to recognise or revisit: frontear (recognition), equipo, video

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 08 · Romance and Double Meanings

A Music Video Without a Love Story

Situation check: What changes when “Me gusta hablar contigo” becomes “Me gustas”?

Useful beginner phrase: Me gusta la música.

Words to recognise or revisit: me gusta, amistad, jeva (recognition)

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 09 · Chavos and Cuartos

Coffee Before the Concert

Situation check: How do they make sure they have enough money for coffee and the ride home?

Useful beginner phrase: ¿Cuánto cuesta?

Words to recognise or revisit: chavos, cuartos, pasaje

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 10 · Parce and Guagua

A Demo Crosses Borders

Situation check: What does guagua mean in the Cuban message, and in the Chilean message?

Useful beginner phrase: ¿Quién escribió?

Words to recognise or revisit: parce (recognition), guagua, cuna

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 11 · Pa, Para and Connected Speech

Finding Nora’s Voice

Situation check: Why does Luis suggest a pause? Which spelling is used in ordinary formal writing?

Useful beginner phrase: ¿Puedes repetirlo?

Words to recognise or revisit: pa (informal), para, pausa

My own short reply in Spanish:

CHAPTER 12 · The Final Listening Lab

Let the Music Begin

Situation check: Where is the missing track? Which earlier lessons help solve the opening-day problem?

Useful beginner phrase: Dale, la revisamos juntos.

Words to recognise or revisit: corillo, beat, guagua

My own short reply in Spanish:

Memory and transfer review

Choose two expressions from any chapter. Verify the meaning and register in the book before you use them.

Phrase 1 and its meaning:

Phrase 2 and its meaning:

Practice after one day, three days and one week

On each return, recall the meaning without the page, then check the dictionary. Spend extra time on words whose meanings vary by region.

SESSION	DATE	WHAT I REMEMBER
After one day	_____	_____
After three days	_____	_____
After one week	_____	_____

A responsible way to learn slang

A word used in a song is not always suitable for a new acquaintance. Recognise it first; check the country, relationship, intention and any adult or derogatory sense. Good comprehension does not depend on imitating every expression.